26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught 4 him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is 5 vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? ** did I not say, Do not deceive me? 29 Then he said to Gehazi, 'Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and 'lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said. " As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the 'house of Baal; and the house of Baal was 'full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vest-ments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the Lord, but the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, "his life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with 4the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought forth the 59 images out of the house of Baal, and

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 ¶ Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

80 And the Lord said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in exccuting that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that vers in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

IN the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel "began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

8 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 'Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 7 And the LORD smote the king. so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and 'dwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 T In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zacharish the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead,

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was hthe word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned 2a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from & Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 Then Menahem smote 'Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah; because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all "the women therein that were with child he ripped up.

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria. 18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

19 And "Pul the king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

5 And he 2 put down the 3 idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the *planets, and to *all the host of heaven.

of And he brought out the /grove from the house of the Lord, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

7 And he broke down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the Lorn, where the women wove shangings for the grove.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from * Goba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem,

*they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD 7 by *Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel 'went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; /where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of

David 6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be 2 chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zerulah went first up, and was chief. 7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called <sup>3</sup> it the city of David,

8 And he built the city round about even from Millo round about: and Joab 4 repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David 5 waxed greater and greater: for the Lord of hosts was with him.

10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who estrengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to A the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobcam, 7 an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties.

13 He was with David at 8 Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people field from before the Philistines.

14 And they 9 set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great 2 deliverance.

15 ¶ Now 3 three of the thirty cap-tains 'went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines en-camped ½ in the valley of Rephaim. 16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate! 18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men 4 that 4 Heb. with have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they

Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David,

1? And David went out $to meet them, and answered and said unto them, if yo be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall $be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no *wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebute it.

*wrong in mine mands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rubuke it.

18 Then *the spirit came upon /Amasal, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse:
peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

18 And there fell some of Manasseh

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, whon he came with the Phillistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Phillistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, "He will fall to his master Saul "to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Josabad, and Jodisel, and Michael, and Josabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David <sup>7</sup> against <sup>4</sup> the band af the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God. 23 ¶ And these are the numbers of the *9 hands that were ready armed to the war, and *came to David to him, **according to the word of the Lorn. 24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready <sup>2</sup> armed to twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were nighthem, even unto Issuchar and Zebulun and Naphtall, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on unues, and on oven, and * meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and on the same of the same o

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjuth-jeurim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obededom.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord our God, 7 let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are "left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are "in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us 9 bring again the ark of our God to us: 5 for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

6 So 'David gathered all Israel together, from 'Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God 'from Kirjathjearim.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 David's messengers, send to conjort Hawm the run of Nahash, are villanously entracti-ed. 6 The Ammonites, strengthened by the Sprians, are overcone by Joah and Abishai, 16 Shophach, making a new supply of the Sprians, is slain by David. TOW "It came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Anmon died, and his son reigned in his stead. 2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash. because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. 3 But the princes of the children of Anmon said to Hanun, 'Think-est thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent com-forters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made them-selves 2 odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joah, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array be-fore the gate of the city; and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that 3 the 10 Now when Joan saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the 'choice of Isruel, and put them in array against the Syriaus.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of 'Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon. 12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the Lord do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 7 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse be-fore Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were be-yond the <sup>6</sup>river: and <sup>7</sup>Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel: and David slew of the Syrians seven

CHAPTER XXI.

1 David, tempted by Salam, forceh Joab to unuber the people. 5 The number of the people being trought, David repeateth of it. 9 David having three plaques propounded by Gad chooselt the pedicience. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventels the destruction of Jerualem. 18 David, by Gad's direction, purchaselt Ornau's threehington: where has from the pedicing of the control of the pedicing of the pedicing of the pedicing of the pedicing of the pedicing of the angel.

AND Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Boer-shebs even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

8 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will be be a cause of trespass to Israel? 4 Nevertheless the king's word pre-valled against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 7 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 2 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: 'but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Gad,

David's /seer, saying,
10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I 3 offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, 4 Choose thee

12 Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or clse three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the Lord destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thy-self what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad. I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 \ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an *angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and the repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 The divisions of the porters. 13 The gates assigned by lot. 20 The Levites that had charge of the treasures. 29 Officers and judges.

CONCERNING the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was 2 Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of 3 Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were, Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elicenai the seventh.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethancel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed 4 him.

6 Also unto Shemalah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obededom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen. 10 Also "Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;)

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the Lord.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, awood for things of wood; honyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones and of divers colours. ing stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing 2 to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with 'the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

CHAPTER I

1 The solemn aftering of Solomon at Albeon. 7 Bolomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND Solomon the son of David Was strengthened in his king-dom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

8 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

4 /But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearin to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover 9 the brasen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur had made, <sup>2</sup>he put before the tabernacle of the Lorn; and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD. which vas at the tabernace of the congregation, and 'offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it. 7 ° 1 in that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him. Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: "for thou hast made me king over a people slike the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 "Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this thy people, that is so

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemics, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and know-ledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches. and wealth, and honour, such as "none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered charlots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 'And the king 2 made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 * And * Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, 4 by their means.

CHAPTER II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His embassage to Huram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Huram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And b Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to 5 Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, dI build an house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

AND it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house.

2 That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

8 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it. 4 bAnd he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars:

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the charlot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and <sup>2</sup>all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ °As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel.

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

11 ¶ And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are 3 holy, whereunto the ark of the Lord hath come.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the Lord on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certain rate fevery 7 Ex. 29. 38.

inandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 ¶ And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the *courses of the priests to their service, and 'the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the *porters also by their courses at every gate: for 2 so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the founda-tion of the house of the Lord, and until it was finished. So the house of the Lord was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to Eziongeber, and to Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 "And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

A ND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she com-muned with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and pre-cious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram. and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum trees 23 terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, what-soever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 7 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold; 14 Beside that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and *governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 7 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and 5 stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon vere of spure gold: 7 none vere of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, 2 ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom 23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. 25 ¶ And Solomon d had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots. and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the charlot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ And he reigned over all the kings from the sriver even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the horder of Egypt

27 And the king amade silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

28 And they brought unto Solo-mon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 T Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of *Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 m And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years, 31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke griev-ous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

ye me to return answer to this people?
7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice 9 And ne said onto them, we have a give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins

11 For whereas my father 2 put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the Lord might perform his word, which he spake by the dhand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam smade speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

AND "when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehohoam

2 But the word of the LORD came bto

Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 8 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren : return every man to his house : for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Je-

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel 2 resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left "their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office had made.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Atariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenut with God. 16 He yntieth down Maachah his wather for her stellatty. 18 He brimpeth dedicate things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out 4to meet Asa. and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; b The LORD is with you while ye be with him; and 'if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but 'if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now 'for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without 'a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And hin those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was 5 destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard these words. and the prophecy of Oded the pro-phet, he took courage, and put away the sabominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities be which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the Lord, that was be-fore the porch of the Lord.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manassch. and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 "And they offered unto the Lorp

2 the same time, of "the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they centered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul:

13 P That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel g should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the Lord with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and "sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But 'the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

19 These waited on the king, beside "those whom the king put in the feaced cities throughout all Judah. CHAPTER XVIII. 1 Jehoshaphal, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab, seduced by fulse prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there. NOW Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.

2 "And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria.

And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him. to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war. 4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the Long to day.

And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand. 6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord besides, that we might enquire of him? 7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always 4 Or, runuch 5 Hob. 9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their 4 Or, Roor. robes, and they sat in a 6 void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. 10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until 7 Heb. thou 7 they be consumed 11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the Loan shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micalah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king a with one assent; lot thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of their's, and speak thou good 13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-glicad to battle, or shall I forbcar? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand. 15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the Lord? 16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the Lord said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace. 17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, 8 but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the Lorn; I saw the Lord sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the Lore said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a /spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do

22 Now therefore, behold, "the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and * smote Micaiah upon the check, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go 4 into 5 an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, 'Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affiction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

phat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

86 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber. 87 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the Lord hath broken thy works. "And the hath broken thy works. "And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go "to Tarshish.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Jehoram, succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren. 5 His wicked reign, 8 Kelom and Libuah verult. 12 The prophery of Elijah against him is writing. 16 Philistines and Arabiaus oppress him. 18 His incurable disease, injunious death, and burial.

NOW "Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son 5 reigned in his stead. 2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

8 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to 6 Jehoram: because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ bJchoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a 7 light to him and to his 4 sons for ever. 8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the 2 dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king. 9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his charlots with him : and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a swriting to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast *slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with 4a great plague will the Lord smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by 'disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 7 Moreover the Lord "stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and scarried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and "his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save "Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 § 7 And after all this the Lord smote him "in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness; so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed 8 without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

12 T Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the Lorn:

18 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the truming in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, <sup>3</sup> Treason, Treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whose followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the Lord's people.

17 Then all the people went to the and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had *distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the 'law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained

4 by David. 19 And he set the m porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 "And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the Lorp: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

6 d And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the Lord, and of the congregation of Israel, for the /tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the *dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it with-out at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made 3a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

18 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. 27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the Lord began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David kins of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the *singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, 'the king and all that were b present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the Lone with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have 6 consecrated your-6 Or, filled your hand, ch. 13. 9. selves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

82 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore 'their brethren the Levites 7 did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified them-selves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

85 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with *the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

86 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a soleme passorer on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly, having destroyed the altars of ideality, keep the feast fourteen days. 21 The pricets and Leviles bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters A and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephrulm and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of raltars that were in Jerusalem, and all rel. 28. 24.

the Loap at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of farael.

2 For the king had taken counsel. and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

8 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. 4 And the thing *pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters <sup>3</sup> from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, 4urn again unto the Lonn God of Abraham, Issae, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which tresand like your brethren, which tres-pussed against the Lord God of their fathers, who therefore "gave them up to desolation, as ye see. 8 Now 'be ye not 'stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but 's yield your-selves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sancti-fied for ever; and serve the Lord or the the forecases of his your God, that the flerceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren and your chil-dren shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye "return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but "they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. 11 Nevertheless 'divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah Pthe hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 d They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and foffered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, 6 as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the Lord.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt of-ferings unto the Lord. But 2 the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of 'Joppa, 'according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Cerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; land appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the Lord.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, "they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the ordinance of David king of Israel, 11 PAnd they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; The because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Isracl. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the Lore, because the foundation of the house of the Lorn was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them. 11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up. 12 But "after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. 13 But in the first year of Cyrus B34. o ch. 1. 1. the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us con-cerning this matter.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Darius, finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the huilding. 13 By the hely of the resentes, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 15 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the pussover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the 2 rolls, where the treasures were 3 laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at 4 Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits:

4 b With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let 'the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and 5 brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 d Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and 6 your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover 7I make a decree what ve shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, eren of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not 8 hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two:
for 2 we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the ciders of every city, and the judges thereof, until "the fleree wrath of our God "for this matter be turned from us, 15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with cer-tain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 T And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives ; and being puilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.

22 And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethancel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

28 Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. 24 Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 Moreover of Israel: of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

26 And of the sons of Elan; Mattaniah, Zochariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah. 27 And of the sons of Zattu:

enai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. 28 Of the sons also of Bebai; Je-hohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

29 And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.

30 And of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manassch.

Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

33 Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei. 34 Of the sons of Bani: Maadai.

Amram, and Uel.

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, 36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, 37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau, 38 And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei, 39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, 40 2 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, 41 Azarcel, and Shelemiah, Shema-

42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph. 43 Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

44 All these had taken strange wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people.
4 The Leviles make a religious confession of God's goodness, and their wickedness.

Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and dread in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 Then stood up upon the 4 stairs; of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Joshua, and Kadmiel, Banl, Hashabniah, Sherobiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art Lord alone: thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with fall their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thec.

7 Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose ! Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of "Abraham ;

8 And foundest his heart "faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites. and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and phast performed thy words: for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and 'heardest their cry by the Red sea; 10 And 'shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they tdealt proudly against them. So didst thou "get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 * And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, "as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou 'leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them bright judgments, and 2 true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy subbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant: 15 And d gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and 'broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should Igo in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, 'neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed *a captain to return to their bondage; but thou art 4a God ready to pardon, gracious and mer-ciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.
18 Yea, "when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy "manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the "pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy pgood spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth. and gavest them 'water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them king doms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of "Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 * Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst Ps. 41.2, 3.

25 And they took strong craces, and a *fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, 3 wells digged, vine-yards, and oliveyards, and *fruit trees in abundance: so they did cat, and were filled, and *became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobe-Zo Nevertheless they were disposed dient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which tes-tified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 A Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies * thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, 51 they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies:

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they "dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, ("which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and swithdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou 7 forbear them, and testifiedst ragainst them by thy spirit 87 in thy prophets: yet would they not give eur:
therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake "thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art ta gracious and merciful God. 32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the "mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the *trouble seem little before thee, 2 that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, "since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

83 Howbeit thou art just in all Dan. 9. 14. that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but "we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

85 For they have "not served thee in their kingdom, and in bthy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, dwe are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

87 And 'it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it: and our princes, Levites, and priests, 2 h seal unto it.

priest, the scribe.

27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, "both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. 28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof "one went on the right hand upon the wall "toward the dung gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiah. and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Me-shullam.

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah.

35 And certain of the priests' sons 35 And certain of the presses some with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azaraci, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. 37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate castward. 38 "And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond "the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall; 39 And from above the gate of E-phraim, and above "the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto 4 the sheep gate: and they stood still in 'the prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maa-selah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trum-pcts;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shomalah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and And the singers 2 sang loud, Ezer. And the singers 2 sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children re-joiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off, 44 ¶ /And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the applied over the challens for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions 3 of the law for the priests and Levites: 4 for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites 5 that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of 44 And an Israel in the days of Ne-hemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: 'and they 'sanctified holy things unto the Levites; 'and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti, seut for, refuseth to come. 13 Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

Now it came to pass in the days of "Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, cover an hundred and unto Ethiopia, *over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasucrus *sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in *Shushan the palace.

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: 4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired. the king made a feast unto all the people that were 2 present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement 4 of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and broyal wine in abundance, eaccording to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law: none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus,

10 T On the seventh day, when hthe heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, 'Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven 7 cham-berlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,

11 To bring Vashti the queen be-fore the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was 8 fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by guage of every people.

his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, which knew the times, which knew the times, which we may be to ward. (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the "seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face. and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 2 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasucrus. 17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall 'despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath. 19 3 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment 4 from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, <sup>5</sup>that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate 6 unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall <sup>p</sup> give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying 7 pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and 8 that it should be published according to the lan-

THERE was a man "in the land of 4 Prov. 8.13. 3 Or, cattle.

Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was 'perfect and upright, and one that deared God, and eschewed evil. 2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

8 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great 4 household; so that this man was the greatest of all the 5 men of the east. 4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of Their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job

the number of them all: for Job said, it may be that my sons have sinned, and Joursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually. 6 T Now Jthere was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lorn, and 7 Satan came also cannon them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, 9 h Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, 'a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 ** Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? "thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his 2 substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he

12 And the LORD said unto Satan,

Behold, all that he hath is in thy 2 power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, <sup>2</sup>The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands. and 4 fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, 'Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind 5 from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

21 And said, "Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 "In all this Job sinned not, nor 7 charged God foolishly.

3 For now it would be heavier "than the sand of the sea: therefore 8 my words are swallowed up. 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: "the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray 9 when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without sait? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat. 8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me 2 the thing that I long for!

9 Even 4 that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off! 10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for 'I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh s of brass? 13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

what doth your arguing reprove? 26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, the overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is sevident unto you if I lie. 29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is an it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot 7 my taste discern perverse things?

1 Joh excuseth his desire of death. 12 He com-plaineth of his own restlessness, 17 and God's watchfulness.

Is there not san appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling? 2 As a servant pearnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling look-

1 Biblad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works. 8 He alleyeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hyperite. 20 He applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shu-

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

8 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If bthy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away s for their transgression; 5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright;

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Job, complaining of his friends' cruelly, shereth there is unterly enough in him to feed their cruelly, 21, 28 He eraceth pity, 23 He believeds the resurrection.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These aten times have ve reproached me: ve are not ashamed that ve 5 make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will b magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach :

6 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of 6 wrong, but

1 cry aloud, but am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 'He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 dHe hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head, 10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone; and mine hope bath he removed like a tree. 11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and 'he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies, 12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle. 13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinefolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of 7 mine own body

18 Yea, 8 A young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

19 'All 9 my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 k My bone cleaveth to my skin <sup>2</sup> and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; 'for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye ** persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 <sup>3</sup>Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever ! 25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: 26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet "in my flesh shall I see God: 27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not banother; 6 though my reins be consumed 7 within me. 28 But ye should say, "Why persecute we him, "seeing the root of the matter is found in me?

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Job shereth that even in the judgment of wan he hath venson to be grieved. 7 Some-times the weicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 16 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 22 The happy and whappy are alike in death. 21 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations. 3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken. "mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be 2 troubled?

52 Mark me, and be astonished, band lay your hand upon your mouth.
6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses 3 are safe from fear, 4 neither is the rod of God upon them. 10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and 'casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance. 12 They take the timbrel and harp. and rejoice at the sound of the organ. 13 They /spend their days 4 in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 g Therefore they say unto God,

Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and 'what profit should we have, if we pray unto him? 16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: *the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 'How oft is the 5 candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger. 18 "They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

19 God layeth up 7 his iniquity ofor his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it, 20 His eyes shall see his destruction. and Phe shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst? 22 9 Shall any teach God know-ledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high. 23 One dieth 8 in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, "Where is the house of the prince? and where are 2 the dwelling places of the wicked? 29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens,

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God. 6 He accuseth Job of dirers sins. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with pro-noises of mercy.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 *Can a man be profitable unto

God, sas he that is wise may be profitable unto himself? 3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite? 6 For thou hast btaken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing. 7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou 'hast with-holden bread from the hungry. 8 But as for 7 the mighty man, he had the earth; and the 8 honourable

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Elihu is any y with Joh and his three friends, 6 Because wishous consthuct from ane, he excused the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproved them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

S o these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel bthe Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified 6 himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had 7 waited till Job had spoken, because they were selder than be.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; where-fore I was afraid, and adurat not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of yours should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment. 10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me;

I also will show mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your 4 reasons, whilst yo searched out 5 what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words .

18 / Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not 6 directed his words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: 7 they left off speaking. 16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;) 17 I said, I will answer also my part. I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of 8 matter, 9 the spirit within me constraineth me. 19 Behold, my belly is as wine which 2 hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles. 20 I will speak, 8 that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, secept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles: in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Elihu offerth himself instead of God, with succeily and merkness, to reason with Job. 8 He exceeds (tod from giving man an ac-count of his ways, by his greatness, 14 God calleth man to repetature by visions, 19 by affections, 23 and by his simistry, 31 He succeich Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken 4 in niv mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their affictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For "thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, "if I be cleansed

CHAPTER XLIL

1 Job submitteth kinnself unto God. 7 God. preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him. 10 He magnifieth and blesseth Job. 16 Job's aye and death.

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that on thought can be withholden from thee.

3 b Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; 'things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: <sup>d</sup>I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the car: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I 'abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Joh, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Joh hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and *go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall *pray for you; for *6 him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhap-

BLESSED ais the man that walk-5 ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, onor sitteth in the scat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord; dand in his law doth he meditate day and night. 8 And he shall be like a tree 'planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not 6 wither; and whatso-ever he doeth shall / prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are cth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. 6 For the Lord knoweth the way of the rightcous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ. 10 Kings are exhauted to accept it.

HY a do the heathen 7 rage, and the people 8 imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. 4 dHe that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and over them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I 2 set my king 3/upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare 4 the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art thee.

8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 'Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 *Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when "his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 12 He prayeth for remedy. 16 He professeth his confidence.

WHY standest thou afar off, O W Lord? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: "let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the Lord abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: 'for I shall never be in adversity. 7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: 'under his tongue is mischief " and 9 vanity,

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: "in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: "his eyes 2 are privily set against the poor. 9 'He licth in wait's secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 4 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones. 11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: 9 he hideth his face;

he will never see it. 12 Arise, O LORD; O God, "lift up thine hand: forget not the "humble." 13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart.

Thou wilt not require it. 14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor 7 committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

PSALM XI.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?
2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may 4 privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 'If the foundations be destroyed. what can the righteous do?

4 The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 * Upon the wicked he shall rain <sup>5</sup> snares, fire and brimstone, and <sup>6</sup> an horrible tempest: 'this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD "loveth righteousness; "his countenance doth behold the upright.

David.

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord; and din thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice?
2 'Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Sclah. 3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou esettest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 dHe asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, 'even length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salva-tion: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast 4made him most blessed for ever: fthou hast 5 made him exceeding glad with thy countenance

7 For the king trusteth in the Lorn, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved. 8 Thine hand shall hind out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 'Thou shalt make them as a flery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall *swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 "Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they "imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore 6 shalt thou make them turn their 7 back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN "thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou 4my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 d For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead mc, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

5 /Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not ishut me up into the hand of the enemy: *thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: <sup>1</sup> mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and "my bones are consumed.

11 "I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but "especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: Pthey that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like 5 a broken vessel. 13 For I have heard the slander of many: 'fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. 14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD:

15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me. 16 "Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 <sup>2</sup>Let me not be ashamed, O Loro; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and <sup>y2</sup>let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 both how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 'Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: 'thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kind-

PSALM XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins.
3 Confession of sins giveth case to the conscience. 8 God's promises bring joy.

BLESSED is he whose a transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lorp b imputeth not iniquity, and c in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy dhand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest

1 The grievous estate of the micked. 5 The excellency of God's mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wick-ed saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For be flattereth himself in his own eyes, 7 until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are intquity and "deceit: "he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 'He deviseth smischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 PThy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like 9 the great mountains; hthy judgments are a great deep: O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

7 * How 2 excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men 'put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. 8 "They shall be 3 abundantly sa-tisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of "the river of thy pleasures.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, tand shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

RET anot thyself because of evil-I doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down blike the grass, and wither as the green herb.

8 Trust in the Lord, and do good; 5 verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the Lorn; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 6 d Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 77 Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: Afret not thyself patiently for finit; after not taysen because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: 'fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD. they shall inherit the earth.

10 For "yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea," thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

PSALM -XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his willful case.

A Psalm of David, *to bring to remembrance.

"LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For bthine arrows stick fast in me. and "thy hand presseth me sore. 3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; deither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin. 4 For 'mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am *troubled; *I am bowed down greatly; *I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh. 8 I am feeble and sore broken: 'I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart. 9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee. 10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for "the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11" My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my 5 sore; and 6 my kinsmen pstand afar off. 12 They also that seek after my life also seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; "and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For 7 in thee, O Lord, *do I hope: thou wilt 8 hear, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, vlest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready 9 to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will b declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin. 19 But mine enemies <sup>2</sup> are lively, and they are strong; and they that <sup>4</sup> hate me wrongfully are multiplicd. 20 They also 'that render evil for good are mine adversaries; / because I follow the thing that good is.

97 The princes of the people are gathered together, keven the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

The ornaments and privileges of the church. A Song and Psalm 8 for the sons of Korah.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the bmountain of his holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, dthe joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

8 God is known in her palaces for a refuge. 4 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.
Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. 8 As we have heard, so have we seen in "the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God: God will "establish it for ever. Selah.

9 We have thought of 'thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to pthy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of rightcousness.

11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof. 132 Mark ye well her bulwarks, sconsider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will g be our guide even unto death.

PSALM XLIX.

1 An earnest persuasion to build the faith of resurrection, not on worldly power, but on God. 16 Worldly prosperty is not to be admired.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm 4 for the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people: give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world: 2 Both alow and high, rich and poor, together. 3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding. 4 b I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about? They that d trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; 7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor egive to God a ransom for him: 8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) 9 That he should still live for ever,

PSALM L.

1 The majesty of God in the church. 5 His order to gather saints. 7 The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies, 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

A Psalm 2 of Asaph.

THE "mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, bethe perfection of beauty, 'God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: da fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 'He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me: "those that have made a covenant with me by sucrifice.

6 And *the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for 'God is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: 'I am God, even thy God.

8 "I will not reprove thee "for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me. 9 ° I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds. 10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are 2 mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: p for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

18 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
14 offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High: 15 And 'call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. 16 But unto the wicked God saith. What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 "Seeing thou hatest instruction, and "castest my words behind thee. 18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou y consentedst with him, and shast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and "thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, band I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but dI will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. 23 f Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God.

PSALM LI. 1 David prayeth for remission of sins, whereaf he maketh a deep confession. 6 He prayeth for sanctification. 16 God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity. 18 He prayeth for the church.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies "blot out my transgressions.

2 b Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

8 For °I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. 4 d Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: /that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 *Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; *and in sin did my mother *conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

PSALM LV.

1 David in his prayer ownplaineth of his fear-hil case. I see prayer hagainst his commis-go whose wickedness and trenchery he com-plaineth. 16 He comforteth himself in Got's preservation of him, and confusion of his encuites.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 Because of the voice of the encmy, because of the oppression of the wicked: bfor they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me

4 ° My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath 2 overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest. 7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah. 8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen dviolence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did Imagnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him : 13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintañce.

14 4 We took sweet counsel together. and walked unto the house of God in company

15 Let death seize upon them. and let them 'go down quick into bell: for wickedness is in their dwellings. and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the Lorp shall save me.

b Dan. 6. 10. Luke 18. 1. Acts 3. 1. & 10. 3, 9, 30. 1 Thess. 5. 17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. 18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me. 19 God shall hear, and afflict them, meven he that abideth of old. Selah. 6 Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God. 20 He hath "put forth his hands against such as "be at peace with him: "he hath broken his covenant.

21 P The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 ° Cast thy ° burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee:

The shall never suffer the rightcous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruc-tion: *4 bloody and deceitful men st shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM LVI.

1 David, praying to God in confidence of his nord, complaineth of his enemies. 9 He pro-fesseth his confidence in God's word, and promiseth to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Jonathelem-rechokim, 6 Michtam of David, when the * Philistines took him in Gath. BE "merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 7 Mine enemies would daily b swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High. 3 What time I am afraid. I will trust in thee.

4 ° In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust : d I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, themselves they mark my steps, / when they wait for my soul,

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God,

8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: gare they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for * God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the Lord will I praise his word. 11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy yows are upon me. O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light 1 Job 33. 30. of the living?

PSALM LVIII.

1 David reproveth wicked judges, 3 describeth the nature of the wicked, 6 deroteth them to God's judgments, 10 whereat the righteons shall rejoice.

To the chief Musician, 4 * Al-taschith. Michtam of David.

Do ye indeed speak rightcousness, o congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; a ve weigh the violence of your hands in the carth. 3 b The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray 5 as soon as they be born, speaking lies. 4 Their poison is blike the poison of a scrpent: they are like dthe deaf 7 adder that stoppeth her ear; 5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, 8 charming never so wisely

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

8 As a snall which melteth, let every one of them pass away: g like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, 2 both living, and in his wrath. 10 'The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 'So that a man shall say, Verily there is 3a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that "judgeth in the earth.

PSALM LIX.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from his ene-mies. 6 He complaineth of their cruelty. 8 He trusteth in God. 11 He prayeth against them. 16 He praiseth God.

To the chief Musician, 4*Al-taschith, Michtam of David; †when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER ame from mine enemies, O my God: 5 defend me from them that rise up against me. 2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody meñ.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: "the mighty are gathered against me; "not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: dawake to help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors.

Sclah. 6 'They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: fswords are in their lips:

8 But "thou, O Lorn, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision. 9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: 'for God is 7 my defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall * prevent me: God shall let * me see my desire upon 8 mine enemies.

11 "Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 "For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 °Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and Plet them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

PSALM LX

1 David, complaining to God of former judg-ment, 4 now, upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance. 6 Conforting himself in God promises, he cravels that help whereon he trustells.

To the chief Musician *upon Shushan-eduth, 2 Michtam of David, to teach; †when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aramzobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

O GOD, "thou hast cast us off, thou hast seattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again. 2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: b heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

8 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: 4 thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be display-ed because of the truth. Selah. 5 /That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me. 6 God hath spoken in his holiness;

I will rejoice, I will Advide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. 7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; "Judah is my lawgiver; 8 "Moab is my washpot; "over Edom will I cast out my shoe; "Philistia, 4 triumph thou because of me. 9 Who will bring me into the 5 strong city? who will lead me into Edom? 10 Wilt not thou, O God, which? hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst 'not go out with our armies?

1 David Reeth to God upon his former ex-perience. 4 Hs voweth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises.

To the chief Musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. 2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. 8 For thou hast been a shelter for me. and a strong tower from the enemy. 4 °I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: "I will 7 trust in the covert of thy wings. Sclah.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heri-tage of those that fear thy name.

6 42 Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years sas many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, obich may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

1 David professing his confidence in God dis-courageth his enemies. 6 In the same con-fidence he encourageth the godly, 9 No trust is to be put in worldly things. 11 Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to *Jeduthun, A Psalm of David. *TRULY "my soul swaiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 bHe only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; 'I shall not be greatly moved.

PSALM LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliveraure, complaining of his enemies. I He promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, as the righteous shall rejoice at it.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, band bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words: 4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not. 5 They encourage themselves in an evil 4 matter: they commune 5 of laying snares privily; 4 they say, Who shall see them? 6 They search out iniquities: 6 they accomplish 7a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly 8 shall they be wounded. 8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall 'declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.
10 *The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face

8/I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; A and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to nly reproach.

11 I made sackcloth also my garment; *and I became a proverb to them.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and 'I was the song of the 4 drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, <sup>m</sup>in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: "let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of othe deep waters, 15 Let not the waterflood overflow nie, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit pshut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O Lord; gfor thy lovingkindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known 'my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee. 20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of beaviness; and "I and 1 am full of heaviness; and "1 looked for some "to take pity, but there was none; and for "comforters, but I found none.
21 They gave me also gall for my meat; "and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

PSALM LXX.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the godly. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. * to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, "O God, to de-liver me; make haste " to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt. 8 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, 4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 d But I am poor and needy: "make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

1 David, in confidence of faith, and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for hisself, and against the enemies of his soul. 11 He promiseth constancy. If He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promiseth to do it observatly.

IN "thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion

2 b Deliver me in thy righteousness. and cause me to escape: 'incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 d2 Be thou my strong habitation. whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given 'commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4/Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art "my hope, O Lord Gop: thou art my trust from my vouth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee. 7 'I am as a wonder unto many;

but thou art my strong refuge. 8 Let imy mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that a lay wait for my soul ** take counsel together, 11 Saying, God hath forsaken him:

persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

12 "O God, be not far from me: O my God, omake haste for my help. 13 f Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek mý hurt. 14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof. 16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works, 18 'Now also 'when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed 5 thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

PSALM LXXIIL

1 The prophet, prevailing in a temptation, 2 showeth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked. 13 The wound given thereby, diffidence. 15 The victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the rightcons.

4A Psalm of *Asaph.

FRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are 6 of a clean heart. 2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.
3 "For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is 7 firm. 5 b They are not sin trouble as other men; neither are they plagued 9 like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 dTheir eyes stand out with fatness: 2 they have more than heart could wish.

8 'They are corrupt, and /speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftly.

They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hi-ther: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 "Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and "washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and schastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children,

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;
17 Until PI went into the sanctuar of God; then understood I their end. 18 Surely 'thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 9 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked. 5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in dark-ness: "all the foundations of the earth are 2 out of course.

6 *I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

7 But 've shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 *Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

as the days of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my law. and walk not in my judgments;

31 If they 2 break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 "Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness 4 to fail. 34 My covenant will I not break nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn * by my holiness 5 that I will not lie unto David 36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne 'as the sun before me. 37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

38 But thou hast a cast off and bahhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: 'thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.

40 d Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

PSALM XCII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God, 4 for his great works, 6 for his judgments on the wicked, 10 and for his goodness to the godly. A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High: 2 To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness and upon the psaltery; supon the harp with 4a solemn sound. 4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

2 every night, 8° Upon an instrument of ten strings.

5 40 LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

6/A brutish man knoweth not : neither doth a fool understand this.
7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

8 But thou, Lord, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But *my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 " Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 *The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish "in the courts of our God. 14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and

5 flourishing :

15 To shew that the Lord is upright: Phe is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

> PSALM XCIII. The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

> THE LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, "wherewith he hath girded himself: "the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

> 2 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4 /The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

PRALM XCIV.

1 The prophet, calling for fustice, complaineth of tyranny and impicty. B He leachelt God's providence, 12 He sheweth the blessedness of ufficient. 16 God is the defender of the af-ficted.

O LORD 2God, a to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, 2 shew thyself.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud 3 LORD, 4 how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? 4 How long shall they 'utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break in pieces thy people,
O Lord, and afflict thine heritage. 6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. 7/Yet they say, The Lord shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9 *He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen. shall not he correct? he that 'teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know? 11 & The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

14 m For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15, But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart 4 shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 "Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had salmost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, "My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up. 19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul. 20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD is 'my defence; and

PSALM XCIX.

1 The prophet, selling furth the kingdom of God in Zion, 5 exhorteth all, by the example of forefulners, to worship God at his holy hill.

THE *LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: bhe sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth 2 be moved. 2 The Lord is great in Zion; and and he is high above all the people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

PSALM CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David. I WILL sing of mercy and judgment; unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will blehave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no 2 wicked thing before mine eyes: 4 I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not /know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: "him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me,

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies 4 shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will a carly destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint, 12 He taketh comfort in the eternity and merry of God. 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded, 23 He sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

A Prayer 5 of the afflicted, * when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the Lord.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry "come unto thee.

2 b Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; 'incline thine car unto me: in the day when

I call answer me speedily. 8 d For my days are consumed 6 like smoke, and 'my bones are burned

PSALM CVII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, 4 over travellers, 10 over captives, 17 over sick men, 23 over seamen, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for bhe is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, 'whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And agathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and a from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the *right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 'Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For *he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as ist in darkness and in the shadow of death, being m bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they "rebelled against the words of God, and contemned

"the counsel of the most High:
12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was "none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 'He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

PSALM CXVI.

1 The palmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance. 12 He studieth to be thankful.

I "LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him 2 as long as I live.

8 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. 5 Gracious is the LORD, and drightcous; yea, our God is merciful.

otas, yes, our don't simeler it was brought low, and he helped me.
7 Return unto thy 'rest, O'my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountfully with thee. 8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

10 'I believed, therefore have I spo-ken: I was greatly afflicted: 11 *I said in my haste, 'All men ₽ Ps. 31. 22. 4 Rom. 3. 4. are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me? 13 I will take the cup of salvation.

and call upon the name of the Lord.

17 I will offer to thee q the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.

18'I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people, 19 In the courts of the Loru's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVII.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth. "PRAISE the LORD, all ye na-

O *PRAISE the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people, 2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy, 5 The padmist by his experience sheuch how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the padmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

8 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever. 4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the Lord 2 in distress: the Lord answered me, and set me in a large place.

6 The Lord is son my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? 7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me. 8 * It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.

9 'It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me about:
but in the name of the Lord will I

4 destroy them.

11 They *compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the Lord I will destroy them. 12 They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched "as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will 5 destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall; but the LORD helped me.

14 "The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 °The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 PI shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 Open to me the gates of right-eousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the Lord:

20 <sup>1</sup>This gate of the Lord, "into which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee: for thou hast " heard me, and " art become my salvation.

22 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.
23 6 This is the Lord's doing; it is narvellous in our cyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. 25 Save now, I beseech thee, O Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, send now prosperity. 26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us blight: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: "thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

A Song of degrees.

UNTO thee dift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

a Have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us. O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

The church blesseth God for a miraculous deliverani

A Song of degrees of David.

If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, "now may Israel say;

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

8 Then they had bswallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:
5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul 6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped. 8 d Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth. PSALM CXXV.

1 The safety of such as trust in God. 4 A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever. e Prov. 22. 8. Is. 14. 5.

3 For "the rod of 2the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the rightcous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their scrooked ways, the Lond shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI.

3 Heb. Heb. returned the returned; g of Zion, Ps. 53. 6. & 85. 1. Hos. 6. 11. Jool 3. 1.

1 The church, celebrating her incredible return out of eapliestly, 4 proyeth for, and prophesieth the good success thereof. A Song of degrees.

WHEN the LORD sturned again the captivity of Zion and the captivity of Zion, "we were . Acts 12. 9. like them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the hea-then. The LORD hath done great things for them.

8 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O Lord, as the streams in the south.
5 'They that sow in tears shall reap in sjoy.

6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing * precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM CXXVII.

1 The virtue of God's blessing. 3 Good children are his gift. A Song of degrees 5 for Solomon, EXCEPT the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to beat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep

8 Lo. children are an heritage of the LORD: and dthe fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

5 Happy is the man that 7 hath his quiver full of them: 'they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSALM CXXVIII.

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God.

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED *is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways.

2 b For thou shalt cat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be "as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children dlike olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord. 5 'The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life. 6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

PSALM CXXIX.

1 An exhaptation to praise God for saving Israel in their great afflictions. 5 The luters of the church are cursed.

A Song of degrees, MANY a time have they afflicted me from "my youth, b may Israel now say: 2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

1 David praiseth God for the truth of his word. 4 He prophesieth that the kinys of the earth shall praise God. 7 He professeth his confi-dence in God.

A Psalm of David. I WILL praise thee with my whole heart; a before the gods will I sing praise unto thee. 2 b I will worship ctoward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast amagnified thy word above all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 cAll the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the Lord. 6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but /Ps.113.5,6. Is. 57, 15, 9 Prov. 3. 31.

PSALM CXXXIX.

1 David praiseth God for his allseeing providence, 17 and for his infinite mercies. 19 He defieth the wicked. 23 He prayeth for sinceritu.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, a thou hast searched me, and known me. <sup>a</sup> Ps. 17. 3. Jer. 12. 3. 8 2 Kin. 19.

2 Thou knowst my downsitting and mine uprising, thou "understand-est my thought afar off. 3 d Thou 7 compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted my lying down, with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou know-est it altogether. 5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 / Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it

7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? 8 h If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: 'if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea:

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. 12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: 3 the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: womb.

14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth iright well.

15 'My 5 substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance. yet being unperfect; and in thy book 6 all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 M How precious also are thy thoughts unto me O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:

when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt "slay the wicked, O God: "depart from me therefore,

ye bloody men.

20 For they p speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy mane in vain.

21 <sup>q</sup> Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 'Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any 8 wicked way in me, and 'lead me in the way everlasting.

b He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but Aviolence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: * but 2 a prating fool 3 shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 "He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: "but a prating fool 4 shall fall.

11 °The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but p violence covereth the mouth of the wicked. 12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but

q love covereth all sins. 18 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but 'a rod is for the back of him that is void of 5 understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 'The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof 6 crreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and "he that uttereth a slander, is a fool. 19 "In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but "he that re-fraineth his lips is wise. 20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth. 21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want 7 of wisdom. 22 The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it,

23 "It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 b The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but "the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, dso is the wicked no more: but the rightcous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him. 27 The fear of the Lord 8 prolong-cth days: but "the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the *expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the Lord is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

80 The righteous shall never be removed; but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

81 'The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh 2 frowardness.

CHAPTER XL

48 FALSE balance is abomination A to the Lord: but 4a just weight is his delight.

2 b When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3°The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 dRiches profit not in the day of wrath: but rightcousness delivereth from death. 5 The righteousness of the perfect shall 5 direct his way : but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. 6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but stransgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 *The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An 'hypocrite with his mouth de-stroycth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered. 10 & When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is 6 void of wisdom dere that is word of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 ***7 A talebearer revealeth secrets:

but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14" Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 ° He that is surety for a stranger <sup>8</sup> shall smart for it: and he that hateth <sup>9</sup> suretiship is sure.

16 PA gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches. 17 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

CHAPTER XV.

SOFT answer turneth away A wrath: but b grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. 4 5 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 'A fool despiseth his father's instruction: /but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble. 7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so. 8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight. 9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord: but he loveth him that *followeth after righteousness.

10 6 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die. 11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then "the 30. Ps. 7. 9. & 44. 21. John 2. 24. 25. & 21. 17. Acts 1. 24. hearts of the children of men? 12 "A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 °A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but p by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken. 14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge; but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 "The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous 2 is made plain.

20 *A wise son maketh a glad fa-ther: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and ba word spoken 4 in due season, how good is it!
24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath. 25 d The Lord will destroy the house of the proud: but 'he will establish the border of the widow.

26 /The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are 5 pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous 'studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 k The LORD is far from the wicked; but the heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 "The car that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth 6 instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding 33 "The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and 'before honour is humility.

tion, and their lips talk of mischief. 3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 dA wise man 4 is strong; yea, a man of knowledge 5 increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7/Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abonination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is 6 small.

that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not the that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man *according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet 7 to thy taste:

14 "So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, "then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 'Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place: 16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: 4 but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the Lorp see it, and sit displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 *9 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; "the 2 candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, "fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with 2 them that are given to change: 22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. *It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
24 *He that saith unto the wicked,

Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blesssnail be delight, and sa good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.
27 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

29 'Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. 30 I went by the field of the sloth-ful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; 31 And, lo, dit was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and 5 considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 'Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as 6 an armed man.

of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. 26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring. 27 'It is not good to cat much honey: so for men "to search their

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Observations of publick government. 15 and of private. 22 Of anger, pride, thievery, cowardice, and corruption.

HE, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 b When the righteous are 6 in authority, the people rejoice: but when mourn.

3 d Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance,

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land; but 7 he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet. 6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare; but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 /The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 3 the bloodthirsty hate the upright : but the just seek his soul. 11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards. 12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and 4 the deceitful man meet together: "the Lord lighten-eth both their eyes. 14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdon: but 'a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 "Where there is no vision, the people perish: but "he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

24 Whoso is partner with a thick hateth his own soul: b he heareth

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whose putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

26 d Many seck 8 the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches, 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any 2 thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. Pro. 10. 19. 8 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and da fool's voice is known by multitude of words,

4 "When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: I pay that which <sup>4</sup> Num. 30, 2, Dout. 23, 21, 22, 28, Ps. 50, 14, & 76, 11. thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; Aneither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but 'fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou * seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not sat the matter: for the that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. 10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity. 11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? 12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he cat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 "As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that 16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and "what profit hath he "that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also "he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: 18 Benoid Mat which I have seen:

*2 it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun sall the days of his life, which God giveth him: 'for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and bath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 4 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use. 3 Of children. 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

"THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, be that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and "also that he have no burial: I say, that "an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness. 5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other. 6 ¶ Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7/All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the sappetite is not filled. 8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 ¶ Better is the sight of the eyes 6than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit, 10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he. 11 ¶ Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man

the better? 12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, 7 all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as ha

8 T Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity. 9 And amoreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goods, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and 'much 4 study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 75 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For "God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give car, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 d The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people / doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people 2 laden with iniquity, 9 a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are 3 gone away backward.

5 \(^5 \) Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will \(^4\) revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: 'they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with 5 ointment.

7 *Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, 6 as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left las a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, "as a besieged city.

9 "Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 4 Hear the word of the Lord. ye rulers pof Sodom; give car unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multi-tude of your gracifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs. or of 7 he goats.

12 When ye come 8"to appear be- righteousness.

fore me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more 'vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is 2 iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your * new moons and your *appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; "I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: "yea, when ye smake many prayers, I will not hear: your hands prayers, I will not have are full of b*blood.

16 ¶ Wash you, make you clean; put away the cvil of your doings from before mine eyes; d cease to do evil:

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and flet us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, fthey shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

22 EThy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 'Thy princes are rebellious, and "companions of thieves: "every one loveth gifts, and followeth after re-wards: they 'judge not the father-less, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, <sup>p</sup>I will case me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies: 25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, and 69 purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin: 26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward 'thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. 27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and 7 her converts with CHRIST cir. 760.

CHAPTER II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom. 6 Wirkedness is the cause of God's forsaking, 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And "it shall come to pass bin the last days, "that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be 4 established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

a And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into 5 pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, Aneither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us 'walk in the light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished 6 t from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, "and they 7 please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 "Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahas, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign. Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of "Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria 4 is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, band Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the shighway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, 7 neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Regin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil son of Remainan, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, 6 Let us go up against Judah, and 2 vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord Gop, "It shall not stand neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and Rezin; abell Enbraim be broken,

s that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. 14 If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established. 10 % Moreover the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God: 6ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear 'a son, and

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with 4a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing. 8 'Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 *5 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming; it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the 28 chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 How art thou fallen from heaven, 40 Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart "I will ascend into heaven, "I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, on the sides of the north: 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds: PI will be like the most High. 15 Yet thou q shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit, 16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms: 17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that 5 opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit: as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: 'the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the Lorp of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and "remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stund: 25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

CHAPTER XV. The lamentable state of Moab.

THE *burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and 6 brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; 2 'He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall how over Nebo, and over Medeba: don all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: 'on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, 7 weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 " My heart shall cry out for Moab; 8 his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old : for iby the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of 9 destruction, desolate: for the hay is wither ed away, the grass fulleth, there is no green thing.

6 For the waters * of Nimrim shall be 2 desolate: for the hay is wither-

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the "brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglain, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, I lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land a SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird 4 cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

8 5 Take counsel, execute judgment; nake thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the cextortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, 7 the oppressors are consumed out of the kind.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be 8 established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, 'judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 7 We have heard of the /pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: *but his lies shall not be 80.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye

9 mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For * the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are 2stretched out, they are gone over the sca.

9 ¶ Therefore ™ I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, "O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for "the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And 'gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

12 7 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on qthe high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their unhappy return. THE burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: b from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. 2 Be 7 still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. 8 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and cshe is a mart of nations 4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your 'joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her 'safar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The Lord of hosts bath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more istrength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sca, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against 6 the merchant city, to destroy the 7 strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, "Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, "pass over to Chittin; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for 'them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 * Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten: make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the Lord will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and 'shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. 18 And her merchandise and her hire "shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord,

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he seateth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the 13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, pre-cept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 T Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us. for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation 'a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foun-dation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away "the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agree-ment with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be 6 trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount "Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may brimstone, doth kindle it.

1 The prophet shewith the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsakiny of God. 6 He exhortelt to conversion. 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WOE to them that go down to Egypt for help; and bstay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel.

neither seek the LORD! 2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and swill not call back his words: but will arise a-gainst the house of the cylideers and against the help of them that work iniquity.

8 Now the Egyptians are 'men, and not God; and their horses fiesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together.

4 For thus hath the Lord spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the 2 noise of them; " so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver tt; and passing over he will preserve it.

6 T Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have *deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and shis idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for "a sin.

8 ¶ Then shall the Assyrian "fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be 56 discomfited.

9 And 67 he shall pass over to 8 his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

4 The heart also of the <sup>2</sup> rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak 3 plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the Lore, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

7 Behold, their svaliant ones shall cry without: 'the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8/The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 h The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and 4 hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 Now will I rise, saith the Lord; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

13 ¶ Hear, mye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

15 He that "walketh 6 rightcously, and speaketh 6 uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of 7 oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of 8 blood, and 6 shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16 He shall dwell on 9 high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

18 Thine heart shall meditate terror.

19 Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canet not understand.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadelh Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous per-suasions soliciteth the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

718. e 2 Kin. 18. 13, 17. 2 Chr. 32, 1.

Now die come or lease in.

Now die came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rab-2 And the King of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army, And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

8 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the 2 scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of As-syria. What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

of I say, sayest thou, (but they are but any any words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the estaff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the Lord our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give 5 pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on 9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for charlots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up with-out the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna
Parabakah Shenk I and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the cars of the people that are on the wall,

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said. Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried and then ransmaren scool, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hecklah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, 23 Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: d and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The Lord will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

8 7 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. 9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of

Assyria,

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers. and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, 16 O LORD of hosts, God of Isracl, that dwellest between the cherubins, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth. <sup>e</sup> Dan. 9, 18,

17 Incline thine car, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the <sup>2</sup> nations, and their countries, 19 And have <sup>3</sup> cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O Lord our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel. Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 4By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall colars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and 6 the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the 7 besieged places.

26 8 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps

27 Therefore their inhabitants were 9 of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy <sup>2</sup> abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and going out, and thy column in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tunult, is come up into mine ears, therefore <sup>4</sup> will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

ISAIAH XL.

Herekish: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Herschiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious cintment, and all the house of his 4 armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whonce came they unto thee?

And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lord of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until thy fathers have had up in store that this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the Lord. 7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and 5 they shall be eutnuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon, 8 Then said Hezeklah to Isaiah,

Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAPTER XL

1 The promulgation of the pospel. 3 The preaching of John Baptist. 9 The preaching of the apostles. 12 The prophet by the omnipotency of God., 18 and his incomparableness, 26 comforteth the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye my peo-ple, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her war-fare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins. 3 To The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, 'Prepare ye the way of the Lorp, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: 'and the crooked shall he made 8 straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

of The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? /All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ 2 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high taming, get thee up into the high mountain; a O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord Gop will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall ! feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and-carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those

12 ¶ "Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in 7a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 "Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who 9 instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of 2 understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

17 All nations before him are as 'nothing; and p they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye gliken
God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 'The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that 3 is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman 'to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 'Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have yo not understood from the foundations of the carth?

22 4 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that "stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the princes to no-

1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abra-ham, to trust in Christ, 8 by reason of his comfortable promises, 40 his rightons salvation, 7 and man's mortality, 9 Christ by his sanctified arm defendth his from the fear of man. If He beneath the offictions of Jerusalem, 21 and promiseth deliverance.

HEARKEN to me, bye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Abraham your father. and unto Sarah that bare you: d for I called him alone, and blessed him. and increased him.

8 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. 4 ¶ Hearken unto me, my people; and give car unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people. *lor a light on the proper.

5 *My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; "the isles shall wait upon me, and "on mine arm shall they trust,

6 ° Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished

7 7 'Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people 'in whose heart is my law; 'fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For "the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righ-teousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD "for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification. 3 He promiseth it shall be general without respect of persons. 9 He inveigheth against blind vatchmen.

THUS saith the Lord, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: a for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

8 ¶ Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the Lord, speak, saying, The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in amine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an ever-lasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD. to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproveth the Jers for their whorish idol-atry. 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE rightcous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and 6 a merciful men are taken away, b none considering that the right-eous is taken away 7 from the evil to come. 2 He shall 8 enter into peace: they shall rest in ctheir beds, each one walking 9 in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, 4 ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

5 Enflaming yourselves 2 with idols 'under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 g Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set they bed; even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remem-brance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.
